TRIANGLE FINANCIAL ADVISORS PRESIDENT RECOGNIZED BY PEERS

Woman-Owned Business in the News

Raleigh, NC (date) Lorraine Johnson, President of a Raleigh-based financial planning , retirement strategies, and investment management firm, has been recognized by Affiliated Advisors, Inc. Affiliated supports independent advisors with a broad array of resources, services and expertise that helps advisors extend their reach and broaden their opportunities.

Each month, Affiliated features one female advisor’s practice in order to raise the profile of women in the industry. “Lorraine’s practice is the example of how women in our industry are invaluable when it comes to providing a superior client experience. Her thoughtfulness, expertise and -commitment to her clients distinguishes her firm from others and reinforces the fact that women advisors are instrumental in the growth of financial services “said Rita Robbins, President, Affiliated Advisors.

“It is an honor to be recognized as a leader in the industry”, said Johnson. “We strive to provide personal attention, leading-edge technology and timely research to our clients. Women have long been a minority in the financial world, and I am happy to have been a ground-breaker in this area. I hope to inspire other women to enter into and thrive in this exciting occupation.”

Lorraine Johnson, founder and President of Triangle Financial Advisors, is a Certified Financial Planner™ practitioner, a Chartered Financial Analyst, and an Accredited Domestic Partner Advisor<sup>SM</sup>. She provides investment advice and guidance for business owners, individuals, and families to help them create, manage and preserve their wealth. During 2013, Lorraine was interviewed by media outlets including WRAL TV, News 14 Carolina and InvestmentNews. The interview with InvestmentNews resulted in a national feature article related to her practice.
